IMTD AWARDS 2023

Sponsored by RED Driving School

The Institute of Master Tutors of Driving is calling for nominations in respect of its awards for 2023.

Introduction

The awards are the Institute's annual opportunity to recognise outstanding contribution to driver training and road safety. They will recognise individuals and/or organisations whether that be from the voluntary, public or commercial sector that have contributed significantly to driver training and or road safety in the United Kingdom.

In addition to the main awards, where appropriate, certificates demonstrating a highly commended status may well be awarded.

Nominations

Nominations for consideration can be submitted by any person or persons and self-nomination is perfectly acceptable but should be accompanied by supportive evidence from a third party

The Awards

Achievements which are worthy and related to the areas of driver training and road safety will be considered.

The awards are judged in one open class which could include nomination in the areas such as:

- a new initiative or project which supports driver training and/or road safety;
- a sustained and evaluated programme which deserves recognition;
- a business or company who can demonstrate sustainable good practice,
- an individual who is worthy in his work as a driver trainer and/or road safety practitioner;
- a person or company which has made an outstanding contribution over time in driver training and/or road safety.

Presentation of Awards

The awards will be presented on Sunday 10th September 2023 at the IMTD Annual Lunch.

Nominations

Nominations should be submitted on the attached form and sent electronically to Charles Morton, Awards Manager <imtdevents@hotmail.com> by midnight on Friday 30th June 2023.
